

REPORT: FERA partners in exclusive screening of “And Then We Danced” by Levan Akin at BOZAR, in Brussels

The special screening of “And Then We Danced” by Levan Akin, was organized by UNIC (The International Union of Cinemas), in partnership with FERA, FIAD (International Federation of Film Distributors' Associations) and Europa Distribution, on November 4th, 2019, at BOZAR, in Brussels.

The screening was preceded by a cocktail reception and gathered a cinema room filled with film lovers from inside and outside the industry and the European and diplomatic sectors.

Levan Akin is a Swedish film director of Georgian descent, whose filmography includes "The Circle" / "Cirklen" (2015) and "Katinkas Kalas" (2011). His latest film, "And Then We Danced" (2019) was very well received internationally, with several award wins and nominations in international film festival, including in Cannes Film Festival and European Film Awards. Find out more about his career and biography here.

Christine Eloy from Europa Distribution introduced the film and welcomed the guests during the cocktail reception and Georgian Representative to EURIMAGES, Tamara Tatishvili, also gave a brief presentation of the film and the current state of Georgian culture and art.