

Women in European cinema: are we making progress?

Presentation of the latest quantitative and qualitative studies

Online panel, Wednesday 7 December, 10:00 to 11:30 CET

EUROPEAN WOMEN'S
AUDIOVISUAL NETWORK

media,
entertainment
& arts

Federation of European
Screen Directors
Fédération Européenne des
Réalisateurs de l'Audiovisuel

Women in European cinema: are we making progress?

Presentation of the latest quantitative and qualitative studies

Interpretation : English, French, Spanish
Click Interpretation  in the meeting controls

Please mute your microphones and close your cameras

Ask questions in the chat

The meeting is livestreamed on <https://cineuropa.org/>
It will be recorded and published on Cineuropa after the meeting

EUROPEAN WOMEN'S
AUDIOVISUAL NETWORK

media,
entertainment
& arts

Federation of European
Screen Directors

Fédération Européenne des
Réalisateurs de l'Audiovisuel

Women in European cinema: are we making progress?

- Presentation of the latest gender statistics of the European Audiovisual Observatory
Patrizia Simone, Film Industry analyst, Department for Market Information
- Presentation of the 2022 update of the Lab Femmes de Cinéma study
Lise Perottet, General Coordinator and Fabienne Silvestre, co-founder of the Lab

Comments from: Iris Zappe-Heller, Austrian Film Institute and Chair of EFAD Working Group on Gender and Inclusion

Eleonor Fahlén, Scen & Film - Swedish Union for Performing Arts and Film, and Chair of the UNI MEI Global Women Working Group

Pauline Durand-Vialle, CEO, Federation of European Screen Directors

Conclusions

Edel Brosnan, Director of Strategy, EWA Network

Women in European cinema: are we making progress?

Watch again on <https://cineuropa.org/>

